14 in as much detail as possible how You obtained the applications and for what purposes You have 15 used them.

16 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

17 TomorrowNow objects that this interrogatory is compound, unduly burdensome and 18 oppressive to the extent it seeks a specific description of each instance of TomorrowNow's 19 access, on behalf of its customers, to JDE and/or PeopleSoft applications. Subject to and without 20 waiving the foregoing objections and the General Responses and Objections, TomorrowNow
21 responds as follows: TomorrowNow has for many customers made and maintained emergency 22 backup copies of their JDE or PeopleSoft applications; the records of such emergency backup 23 copies will be included in TomorrowNow's document production, and TomorrowNow relies on 24 those records to respond to this interrogatory pursuant to Rule 33(d). TomorrowNow has also for 25 many customers maintained development environments on TomorrowNow's systems, to avoid 26 interference with customer production environments in the development and testing of individual
27 fixes and updates; TomorrowNow's databases, which will be included in TomorrowNow's 28 production of documents (as to relevant customers), contain records of such environments, and

1 TomorrowNow relies on those records to further respond to this interrogatory pursuant to Rule 2 33(d).
